Mel Gibson speaks out on Terri Schiavo situation

Clearwater, Florida – In a fax to the Terri Schindler-Schiavo Foundation, dated March 11, 2005, actor and director Mel Gibson has made his feelings on the Terri Schiavo situation known.

Best known for his role in “Braveheart” and his production of “The Passion of the Christ”, Gibson penned the following message in support of Terri’s parents, Bob and Mary Schindler, in their quest to protect her life:

... from the desk of Mel Gibson

Statement to the March 12, 2005 Rally on behalf of Terri Schiavo:

I fully support the efforts of Mr. & Mrs. Schindler to save their daughter, Terri Schiavo, from a cruel starvation.

Terri's husband should sign the care of his wife over to her parents so she can be properly cared for.
